THE FORGERY ADMITTED

Full Details of the Morey Letter Business.

The Complete History of One of the Most Daring Forgeries That Was Ever Perpetrated, Although a Bungling Affair.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.--The long-delayed expose, by U. S. Commissioner John T. Davenport, of the Morey letter is now published. It makes a book of one hundred and fifty pages. It is largely made up of fac-similes of documents showing the forgery in its various forms. The narrative is only a brief part of the whole volume.

The book sets forth that the person who actually penned the forged Morey letter was a lawyer of this city named Henry H. Hadley.
Davenport describes him as a manipulator of insurance companies of doubtful character, and of other matters equally precarious, with innate love of intrigue, and with a craving for notoriety, and an unconquerable desire to climb into politics and to correspond with public men. He quotes from his letters to show he was always a Democrat, though at the time of the commission of the forgery he was Secretary of the Hancock Republican Association, in the rooms of which the forgery was committed, on or about October 2, 1880. The forgery, according to Hadley's admissions, and confirmatory evidence collected by Davenport, was originally in the form of an extract from a supposed interview with General Garfield.

Davenport possessed himself of one thousand letters written by Hadley between 1873 and 1879, and finds all the distinguishing marks of orthography and calligraphy alike in them and the forged letter. Hadley always misspelled the word "religiously" as it was misspelled in the forged letter, and all nouns ending in "ies," such as "companies," "copies," "enemies," he spelled the final "ys," as the word "company" appears in the forged letter.

In his genuine correspondence Hadley invariably dotted the letter "i" when it occurred in a word containing an "i" as in the signature to the forged letter. Hundreds of fac-simile reproductions prove this conclusively.
It was on the display of this evidence of his guilt that Hadley confessed his part in the crime.

Hadley admits that he wrote the name of Henry L. Morey in the register at the Kir-land House, Lynn, and substituted it for the name of George E. C. Morey in the affidavit of Mrs. Clara Morey, declaring that he was her son. These forgeries were made to sus-tain the original forgeries. There was no such man as H. L. Morey, to whom the forged letter was supposed to have been written, nor was there ever any such person as John W. Goodall, who claimed to have been executor of H. L. Morey, and who transmitted the forged letter to the Truth.
Hadley wrote the Goodall letters also.

Davenport also says that a week or ten days before the publication in the Truth of the Morey letter, Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, was told that such a letter was in existence, and, upon his expressing a doubt thereof, his informant assured him such was the case, and that he believed he could obtain it and show it to him--Dana. To this Dana replied that he did not care to see it, for the reason that he believed if any such letter was in existence it was a forgery, and he wished to have nothing to do with it.
Lindsey, like Morey, was a fictitious person, and the man O'Brien, who personated him on the Philip O'Brien, was arrested for forgery, confessed, and is now serving a term in Sing Sing for that offense.

The language of the Morey letter is shown to have been culled from speeches of Cutler, of New Jersey; Williams, of Wisconsin; Phillips, of Kansas; Luntrell, of California, and others on the Chinese bill, and from the testimony of Henry George and others before the House Committee on Chinese Immigration, and in no sense are extracts from Garfield's writings.

A copy of the account of Garfield with the Stationary Clerk of the House for the session from March 21 to December 23, 1879, shows that Garfield never used paper with the periodical heading of the sheet on which the forged letter was written, and that style of paper was never issued except during the time indicated.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

Made Against Three Men Who are After Gore.

SANTA FE, N. M., Aug. 18.--Cyrus Smith, John Martin and Wm. Sill were arrested and placed in jail charged with conspiracy to murder John D. Allan, his wife and brother, and to abduct Allan's two infant children.
It seems that some time ago Smith sold Allan the Santa Fe Smelter, receiving part payment in cash and part in notes. The notes were paid as fast as they fell due, but two weeks ago Smith demanded immediate payment on all the notes, although they were not due. Allan refused. Smith then, it is alleged, conceived the idea of murdering Allen and his wife and Allan's brother, and stealing the children and holding them for a big ransom. Allan charges that Smith has threatened his life several times. The plot was to have been consummated, but Allan had gotten wind of it, and had the Sheriff and several officers at his house. It is claimed that Smith and his confederates approached Allan's house to carry out their murderous designs, but became alarmed and fled. There seems sufficient circumstantial evidence to warrant Smith's arrest, however. All criminal intentions are denied by Smith, who claims that he was watching Allan, as he had heard Allan wanted to leave town. The prisoners have not yet had an examination.

Bishop Simpson's Will.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.--The will of the late Bishop Matthew Simpson was admitted to probate to-day. He bequeaths to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church one-seventh of his estate, in trust, for the endowment of an Episcopal chair for a Bishop, who shall reside in Philadelphia, provided that, including this bequest, the sum of $50,000 be subscribed for this purpose before the meeting of the next General Conference. The remainder of the estate, valued at $100,000, is bequeathed to the Bishop's wife and children.

FIRES.

AT VINCENNES.

VINCENNES, Ind., Aug. 18.--A fire broke out in the Riverside Lumber Mills of Wiley Tendolph, and at last accounts ten acres of lumber was ablaze. The fire is no doubt of incendiary origin, as blazes were discovered simultaneously in the mill, stable and lumber piles. Some boys put out the blaze in the mill, but the stable was destroyed, burning up ten horses and mules. About a million feet of lumber have been burned, and as the fire is beyond control, another million is doomed. Mr.
Tendolph says he is fully covered by insurance. The lumber is worth $30,000. A fire was discovered at this place one evening last week, but information was suppressed. Although it is out of the city limits, the fire department is on hand, and will probably save the mill. This is the third time the Riverside Mills have been destroyed within five years by incendiaries.

AT NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 18.--A dozen fires, several of them serious, have occurred in East Nashville in the last few weeks. The last was the burning of the Nashville Cooper-age Company's works, extending a loss of $60-000. J. McBrooks was arrested on another charge, and has since confessed to being the author of all the fires, claiming that he was irresistibly impelled by the love of witnessing large conflagrations. McBrooks burned a house in Knoxville thirteen years ago, for which he served ten years in the penitentiary. He confesses that the night he was released he started two fires in Nashville, and it is now almost certain that he originated two fires which occurred in the Penitentiary shops during his confinement, the loss at least being between $200,000 and $300,000.
He started another fire here Friday night, besides the one mentioned above.

AT PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 18.--A disastrous fire has occurred at Fish Lake, near Rathdrum, Idaho. The fire entirely destroyed a large saw and planing mill belonging to Messrs. Finn, Dodge & Kenney, the office, the company's stores and several residences.
A large quantity of stock was on hand and over 1,000,000 feet of lumber was consumed.
The loss will reach $300,000. The insurance is light.

MINNESOTA FLAMES.

ANOKA, Minn., Aug. 18.--A fire started at 2 o'clock in the skating rink and spread with alarming rapidity. The department is unable to cope with the flames and have telegraphed to St. Paul and Minneapolis for assistance, and special trains with engine started from both cities, and are now on the ground. Nearly all of the entire business portion of the city is already consumed, including the immense Washburn Mills, Post office block, First National Bank building and Hotel Chamberlain. Loss already reaches a million.

FRONTENAC BURNED.

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 18.--Old Frontenac, owned by Alex. Gunn, has been burned. Loss estimated at $50,000.

A BOLD PLOT.

Conspiring to Overthrow the Present Government of Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 18.--A conspiracy against the Government has been discovered.
It embraces a plot to depose President Gonzales and put in his place Jose Maria Inglesias, and to assassinate General Diaz, and all leaders of what is known as the Tuxtepec party. The plot is said to be wide-spread in the States of Vera Cruz, Puebla, Marais and Queretaro, and that there is great public anxiety. A number of arrest have been made during the week, embracing several prominent persons, among them Francis Mejia, ex-Minister of Finance, Ricardo Romeriz, ex-Judge of the Federal district; Gregori Perez Jordan, a prominent lawyer; General Feliciano Chavarro, Colonel Jose Maria Rodriguez, D. E. Vies, Augustin Mendoza, Ambrosio Dominguez, Ramon Juarez, Miguel Salcido and Vidal Carrol, and also the wife of Jordan.

The latter had a small printing office in which a large number of posters were found ready for circulation, inciting the people to revolt against the present Government and in favor of Inglecias. No further explanation is given, but other arrests are expected to be made and active measures will be taken to defeat the plot.

LOGAN ON TRIAL.

The Son of the Candidate on Trial for Profanity.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Aug. 18.--The Newburg Register says that John A. Logan, Jr., the son of the Republican candidate for Vice President, who is in the Fourth Class of Cadets at West Point, has been placed under arrest there to await trial by court-martial on a charge of using profane language and conduct unbecoming a Cadet.

The story goes that young Logan used profane language while doing guard duty a few nights ago. The Corporal was relieving the guards, and when he approached Logan, was scooped by the Senator's son with: "Who goes there, by G--d!"

The Corporal, although surprised, gave the usual reply. When Logan cried out "Advance, friend, and give the countersign, by G--d!"

The case was reported to the Superintendent.
The following day he was placed under arrest, and has since been on trial. The Court held a session Wednesday, but none of the proceedings have been made public.

Star Tender Murdered.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 18.--Charles Bor-shert, of Oconomowoc, shot and killed Voor-ces Cosine, a bar tender recently from Chicago. The killing occurred in a house of ill fame. The murderer was arrested. Mrs.
James Hackett, of Watertown, who was present was also arrested.

Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.--The Navy Department received from Commander Batchel-lor, at Galena, Key West, a dispatch stating that Ensign Capshaw had been sent to the Hospital with what was believed to be yellow fever. The vessel has been put in quarantine.
A case was subsequently found to be a positive case of yellow fever. Acting Secretary of the Navy telegraphed for Commander Batchelor to all at once for a lower harbor at Portsmouth. The Galena sailed immediately, no new cases having developed.

ANALYSIS OF A STOMACH

The Doctors Investigate the Interesting Mysteries.

Hair, Vegetable and Wood Fibre and Small Shells, With Indications of Human Muscle and Flesh, in Killingbury's Stomach.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.--Until the death of Dr. Pavy, of the Greely party, June 6, the flesh cut from most of the bodies was removed by a hand skilled in dissection. A few of the bodies had the fleshy portions cut away entirely. But with the majority the work had been so well done that a casual observer would not have suspected, without other evidence, of which there was plenty, however, that the survivors had been reduced to cannibalism, and had for a long time been subsisting principally on the bodies of their dead comrades. It is not a coincidence that the body of Dr. Pavy, with those of two others who died after him, should be reported as washed away. With Surgeon Pavy gone the scalpel could not be used.

Before the bodies had been left with little marks of the terrible work done. After his death the survivors were forced to dismember the bodies and denude them of flesh in a way that left nothing but bones. So these unfortunates were reported as buried in an ice floe and were hid away, and to the list was added: Sailor, who died June 3, and Sergeant Rice, who died on April 9.

On most of the bodies the scalp was passed under the skin, the flap laid back, the flesh removed, the skin pulled back in place, and the edges joined so there was no external evidence of the work. No one in the party except the surgeon could so skillfully remove the flesh and leave the skin intact.
How Pavy met his death has not been explained, but it was probably by the knife.

With him gone, and every day the pangs of hunger growing more unbearable, the caution was relaxed, and the survivors ate of human flesh however they could easiest secure it.

In the last days before relief came all sense of honor and of feeling had been lost. Long was the strongest of the party, and was able to walk to the launch. Fredericks had considerable strength left and clambered on board the Thetis almost unaided.

It was seldom the men stood upright. They crawled about on their hands and knees, and when Brannard was undressed on the Thetis his knees were found calloused to a thickness of over half an inch. In the midst of such horror it was wondered by the rescuing party how Greely and his companions kept their reason.

About the camp were scattered bones of the dead, and dissected and mutilated bodies were half exposed in the burial plot back of the tent. It was a scene at which the rescuers shuddered. The bodies of those who died natural deaths were not mutilated.
Where death had been caused by disease, and as to how many died of scurvy, accounts differ, but all did not die of starvation.
It is feared others met death as Henry did. It is known that court martials were frequent in the camp.
Pavy was on trial three times. There were dissections among the men until weakened in body and mind by privation, each did all he could for the others, but at the last the struggle for life became single. It was each one for himself. The officers of the Relief vessels still refuse to say anything on the subject. Sailors talk freely, but some of the scenes they describe are too revolting for repetition.

A MIXED STOMACH.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 18.--With magnifying glasses Doctors Charles and James Buckley, Mandeville, and Baker and Lawrence made an examination of the matter found in the large intestine of Killingbury's body. It is composed of several substances, such as hair, woody and vegetable fiber, minute shells, (not scales) and muscle and flesh.
If this there can be no mistake. Hair and shells predominate in the mass. What appear to be the stems of moss were seen. One gray hair is plain to be seen. The muscle has the appearance of the end of a severed tendon.
This is quite suggestive.

AN INFERNAL MACHINE.

A Bomb of Giant Powder and Glycerine Found.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Aug. 18.--W. E. Blake has been prominent in the prosecution of saloon-keepers since the prohibitory law went into effect. A 2 o'clock Friday morning his family were awakened by a loud explosion and a bright flash of light. Investigation has shown that the explosion was that of an infernal machine. To the fact that it was ignorantly or too hastily prepared, is due Mr.
Blake's safety. It was of a lap-welded iron boiler tube, about two and a half feet long and two and a half inches in diameter, hampered over and closed at one end. This was partly filled with giant powder, and then an oil cloth cartridge about one inch in diameter and ten inches long was inserted, filled with nitro-glycerine or dynamite.

By the side of this was an ordinary blasting fuse, most of which was burned. Whether the bomb was improperly packed or whether the explosion was premature only burning the powder at the top, is uncertain. But the deadly materials remaining leave no doubt as to the object of the person who manufactured the machine. The composition of the explosive consisted of sawdust and gun cotton saturated with crystals of nitre, which is accepted as evidence that nitro-glycerine formed the base of the compound.

Mr. Blake says so far as he knows he has not a personal enemy in the world, and that in these late prosecutions in which he has been engaged every saloon-keeper has treated him personally with uniform kindness and respect, and he did not believe any one had any design upon his life or property.

False Rumors.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 18.--The fact developed that Mrs. Sheldon, wife of the missing Englishman, left here Wednesday night, ostensibly for Europe, with the intention of making a brief stop in St. Louis. The present theory is that she expected to meet her husband in St. Louis. The police authorities now admit the truth of the report of Finlay's call upon them, and all the circumstances, so far as known, go to disprove the theory of abduction.

FOREIGN.

M'CABE IMPROVING.

DUBLIN, Aug. 18.--Cardinal McCabe, who has been ill, is improving.

HANLON BEATEN.

LONDON, Aug. 18.--A despatch from Melbourne says:
The race between Beach and Hanlon for five hundred pounds a side has been rowed.
Beach won by six lengths.

THANKS THE QUEEN.

ROME, Aug. 18.--The Deritto states that Sig. Mancini, Minister of Foreign Affairs, thanked Queen Victoria for England's recent friendly manifestations.

THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT.

PARIS, Aug. 18.--The French Parliament prorogued despite the protests of many of the Deputies who were desirous of obtaining definite information regarding the negotiations with China.

THE TAMATAV TROUBLES.

PARIS, Aug. 18.--Le Matin reiterates the reports published that the Hovas had recaptured Tamatav while Admiral Miot was absent establishing out posts. In regard to the assertion of Prime Minister Ferry that Admiral Miot reported from Tamatav, August 9, that the condition of the French posts were satisfactory, it says it is impossible for Tamatav news of the 9th to reach Paris by the 13th.

M'MAHON MURDERED.

LIMERICK, Aug. 18.--A farmer named MacMahon, living near Ennis, was attacked by three disguised men armed with revolvers.
During the melee which followed MacMahon was shot through the heart. The assailants made their escape. The Government officials claim MacMahon incurred the hatred of the Invincibles by his active sympathy with landlords regarding the rent question, and that his murder was the result. Others are of the opinion that MacMahon was murdered during a daring attempt at robbery.

CHANGE IN THE WAR ASPECT.

LONDON, Aug. 18.--In regard to warlike reports from China the published inquiries made by the United Press failed to elicit anything confirmatory of such a state of affairs at the Chinese Embassy in Paris and London.
It was stated that nothing indicating that France and China were on the eve of hostilities had been received, but that the latest information at hand pointed to probably a peaceful solution of the difficulty. The English Government officials, who would likely receive advance information of a possible rupture between France and China, state that they received no news of an immediate attack on Foo Chow probable. McFerry, in an interview, stated that negotiations are proceeding quietly, and that in his opinion would terminate peacefully.

NO GOOD WORLD.

A $75,000 Heiress Enters the Seclusion of a Convent.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.--Miss Lulu Taylor, an heiress, has taken the black veil, and for the second time in her life entered the Visitation Convent and renounced the world. When she attained her majority she inherited $75-000, and, upon first entering the Convent, conveyed the property, by means of a deed of trust, to her sisters, Miss Ida and Miss Theresa and her brother George. She took $6,000 to the convent, but this amount whittled the appetite of the Order, and it is alleged that influence was brought to bear on the girl to induce her to return to the world and claim her legacy. Last April she gave notice that she would return and her sisters resisted her claim. She "instituted suit" and the matter was compromised by her receiving back all her property. After waiting a few weeks she again entered the convent taking her money with her.

A Double Drowning.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.--Jerome and James Carr, aged eight and ten years, residing near Loveland, were drowned while bathing in the Miami River. The younger got beyond his depth, and the older one was drowned in attempting his rescue. They were taken from the water almost immediately by a fishing party camped near by, and every effort made to resuscitate them, but without success.

The parents of the children were away from home, having gone to Loveland with their two smaller children to have their pictures taken. The father is a worthy laboring man, but very poor, and the members of the fishing party made up a purse of $6 for the benefit of himself and family. The neighbors will bear all the expenses of the funeral.

Jumped a Trestle.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Aug. 18.--A freight train on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad was crossing a trestle five thousand feet in length, when a car containing coal jumped the track, broke the trestle and fell to the bottom, dragging down thirteen other cars.
On the train were John Reichelderfer, aged forty years, conductor; and James McCarty, aged twenty, brakeman. Both were carried down. The conductor was struck by a piece of timber, knocked insensible, and thrown into the creek. His injuries consist of three ribs and one leg broken, with other injuries, which makes his recovery doubtful. McCarty attempted to jump, but was caught and hor-ribly crushed.

The Sharon Scandal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18.--The Alta publishes the written statement of Nellie Brockett, a witness for the plaintiff in the Sharon divorce case. She alleges that the word "wife" in the "Dear wife" letters is a forgery. The marriage contract was written over the signature of Senator Sharon on paper stolen from his room by the plaintiff in the suit and furnished the form of the contract.

Killed His Father.

MANHATTAN, Kan., Aug. 18.--Sherman Waters, son of Captain M. D. Waters, a well-known citizen, has shot and killed his father.
The young man, armed with a shotgun, was just starting on a hunting excursion when his father ordered him to shoot a neighbor's dog.
The boy refused. A quarrel ensued, whereupon the parent entered the house, returned with a pistol, and fired at his son, who returned the fire with fatal effect.

Upset and Drowned.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 18.--A rowboat containing Miss Belle Ivers, of Marlboro, Massachusetts, and John Lambie, of Theresa, New York, was run down by the steamer Robbess. Miss Ivers was drowned.
